Printing Techniques

Digital Printing

Digital printing produces beautiful, vibrant colors that will look like original watercolor paintings with crisp text details. All of Tying the Knots printing is digital unless upgrades such as letterpress or die cut printing is added.

Digital Printing Paper Options

- Felt Paper 290gsm
- Watercolor Paper 330gsm
- Cotton Paper 600gsm

Letterpress Printing

Letterpress is a traditional printing technique that dates back centuries. First, a plate is machined with your text to create an impression on thick, cotton papers. Each page runs through the press one at a time as ink is rolled onto each card.

Letterpress Paper Options

- Crane's Lettra 300gsm
- Crane's Lettra 600gsm

Letterpress combined with Digital Printing

Letterpress printing can be combined with digital printing by first printing the artwork on digital printers $225, then printing the text on letterpress.

Die Cut Printing

Die-cutting is a special process that first creates a die from artwork we have created, once the die (shape) is machined, the printed cards are cut to that exact shape. We can reprint shapes from our curated collection, or paint a new, custom design $175-$475, and machine a new die $375.

Die Cut Paper Options

- Felt Paper 290gsm
- Smooth Paper 290gsm
