WATERCOLOR WEDDING STATIONERY

The process for custom design

1. Please visit our custom illustration portfolio to get a feel for our design style as well as the included pricing page to determine if we seem to be a great fit in aesthetic, pricing and timeline capabilities.
2. Let us know if you would like to move forward in custom design and printing with Tying the Knots (hooray!) After we confirm our availability, we will send our digital contract, as well as a link to our contact form. We require a $150 retainer deposit which will be applied to your project total.
3. Schedule a “specific to my wedding” questions and details meeting via phone consultation or email and visit our Welcome Page with font options, text and design inspiration as well as templates to ease the design process.
4. In starting the design process, anticipate a Standard Invitation Suite Custom Design Timeline of 3-6 months. You will receive the first pencil proof on our first piece within 1 work week of filling out the corresponding form (expedited options may be available).
5. After reviewing your feedback, we will make any necessary revisions to the pencil design and/or font and text layout add 1-5 business days, each revision.
6. Receive the final watercolor proof on our first piece within 1 work week of approved pencil proof (expedited options may be available).
7. Remaining deposit is due.
8. We continue work on your invitation suite. Once all cards are finalized and approved, we print! Standard print timeline approximately 2 weeks (expedited options may be available).

what is included

The custom illustration fee is $0*

2 complimentary rounds of revisions on each illustration after first proof (3 total proofs).

Welcome Page directory with design inspiration pages, text layout and font options and templates.

Complimentary paper and envelope sample package upon request to all signed custom design clients.

*There is a possibility that what we design for you may be available to future clients who may have the same aesthetic. If you prefer the custom order design to remain exclusive to your wedding, please add $1200 and all original artwork is yours to keep.

our philosophy

We believe in quality- in the ART of creating with our hands. Unfortunately, many design studios incorporate ubiquitous pre-fab watercolor clip art icons into their clients' "custom" wedding designs. We consider your invitations as HEIRLOOMS; each of our designs are thoughtfully hand painted, here in our studio in the picturesque Sonoran Desert.

Each card we print is hand-fed, one by one.
We love this TACTILE experience and the opportunity to oversee the cards printed for your special guests. Each and every card will look like an original watercolor painting; the first glimpse into your most wonderful day.
